2010 Greenway and Community Trail Awards Program

AWARD CATEGORIES

Public Leadership Award

The award recognizes agencies or local, county, state, or federal governmental entities or their employee(s) that have made significant and sustained contributions in support of planning, design, construction, management, promotion, or public involvement for a trail project or program.

Volunteer Service Award

The award recognizes an individual or not for profit organization that has demonstrated strong leadership and made exemplary and significant contributions to planning, construction, maintenance, promotion, fundraising, or utilization of partnerships for a trail project. Special consideration will be given to longstanding commitments.

Corporate Partnership Award

The award recognizes a business or corporation that has made a significant and exemplary contribution to the planning, design, construction, maintenance, or promotion of a trail project in partnership with the trail community.

Healthy Trails, Healthy People Award

The award recognizes an individual, not for profit organization, governmental entity, business, or corporation that has demonstrated an exemplary commitment to improving universal access to trails, promoting trail use and increasing physical activity, or creating programs that encourage a heightened awareness of active community environments. Initiatives that involve partnerships with the health care community and/or encourage trail use by persons with disabilities will be given special consideration.

Outside the Box Award

The award is an open-ended category that recognizes creativity in greenway and community trail design, management, fundraising, or organization.
