Parks & Trails New York Praises Governor Cuomo's Selection For Parks Commissioner

Parks & Trails New York (PTNY) would like to commend Governor Cuomo on his outstanding selection for Commissioner of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation.

“We are pleased that Governor Cuomo selected a passionate and well-respected parks and open space professional to head the Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation. We congratulate Rose Harvey and look forward to working with her in the years ahead to sustain and support our magnificent parks and historic sites,” said Robin Dropkin, Executive Director of PTNY.

Rose Harvey brings with her a proven record of success in the parks and open space arena and an innovative style that has helped numerous communities in creating cost-effective parks, playgrounds and open spaces.

Dropkin continued, “PTNY looks forward to collaborating with Ms Harvey to help ensure that the New York State Park System remains strong, vibrant and accessible to the millions of residents and tourists who visit these special places each year.”

Parks & Trails New York is the state's leading advocate for parks and trails, working since 1985 to expand, protect and promote a network of parks, trails and open spaces throughout the state for use and enjoyment by all. Learn more at www.ptny.org.
