The Albany Heritage Area Visitors Center will be participating in the Sixth Annual Canal Clean Sweep April 15 through 17.

As part of this multi-community celebration, the Albany Visitors Center will be partnering with the Scouts of Northeastern New York on Saturday, April 16 from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., beginning at the Visitors Center and ending with a sweep of the Corning Preserve.

“The Girl Scouts will experience the Hudson River Watershed through hands-on activities and by taking action to sweep clean the Albany waterfront” says Education Coordinator for the Albany Visitors Center Carol Ann Margolis.

The event is sponsored by the New York State Canal Corporation, Parks & Trails New York, and the New York State Environmental Facilities Corporation (EFC).

The Canal Clean Sweep highlights the growing significance of the NYS Canal System as a recreation and tourism destination by encouraging communities, not-for-profit organizations and volunteers to engage in beautification activities along the Canal System and the Canalway Trail.

More than 90 communities, service groups and businesses across the Canal System are participating.
