CANAL CYCLING TRIP WINDS DOWN

Section: Capital Region, Page: D11

Date: Sunday, July 19, 2009

Eleanor Morris-Benedict, 5, of Durham, N.C., above, who was riding with her father, John Morris, during Cycling the Erie Canal caravan, carries her luggage that was delivered to a camp site at Collins Park in Scotia by truck Saturday. About 500 cyclists, ranging in age from 2 to 85 years old, started out in Buffalo last Sunday. They've been riding between 40 and 60 miles a day along the Erie Canal and will end their 400-mile long trip today in Albany. At left, cyclists signal a left turn into the Collins Park camping area.
