Parks and Trails New York has named the Fonda, Johnstown, and Gloversville Rail Trail as one of it's "Seven Trails for Winter Wonder."

The organization made the list of trails they say are ideal for winter exercising and activities.

The FJ&G Rail Trail covers eight miles of converted rail bed from Johnstown to Mayfield through Gloversville. The FJ&G line once served as a means of transportation for the workers of glove manufacturing companies which once existed in Gloversville.

Located just south of the Adirondacks, this trail exists as a reminder of New York's industrial past.
