

Park Advocacy Day

Monday | March 4, 2019 | Albany

Join Parks & Trails New York and the Open Space Institute's Alliance for New York State Parks Program in Albany to help send a message of support for New York's state parks and historic sites

As a park advocate, you'll join other park supporters from across the state and meet with policymakers to stress the importance of supporting funding for state parks. Your efforts will impact legislators as they make important decisions about parks.

Participating in Park Advocacy Day is meaningful, fun, and easy! Once registered, you'll be assigned to a team with fellow state parks supporters who, along with an experienced team leader, will join you in meetings with policymakers throughout the day.
